Dr. Carr Named To Language Staff

The appointment of Dr. W. L. Carr, author and researcher in the field of ancient languages, as visiting professor in the department of ancient languages, was the major approval made by the executive committee of the Board of Trustees recently.

Dr. Carr is co-author of "The Living Language" and has been associate editor of the "Classical Outlook" since 1938.

Other major staff changes are:

College of Arts and Sciences: Appointments: R. J. Howard, instructor in physics; Jack T. Callender, part-time instructor in English; Nancy Poe, instructor in physical education; Dr. Irving A. Gail, psychiatric consultant, department of psychology; Morris Roseman, part-time lecturer in psychology; R. E. Hauser, assistant geologist, Kentucky Geological Survey.

Leaves of absence: Frank L. Orrell, Jr., assistant professor of metallurgical engineering, granted leave of absence from Oct. 1 to June 30, 1950, to study for the doctorate at Ohio State University; David K. Blythe, assistant professor of civil engineering, granted leave of absence from Oct. 1 to May 30, 1950, to study at Cornell University for his master's degree.

College of Education: Appointments: Nyana Rowley, part-time instructor in the elementary school; Mrs. Virginia B. Cox, part-time instructor in instruction and placement; Ridgely Park and Evelyn McElroy, critic teachers, University School.

University Libraries: Appointment: Mrs. Margery Hornsey, librarian, engineering library.

Office of the Dean of Women: Appointments: Mrs. Mary J. Smith, assistant dietitian, women's residence halls.

University Personnel Office: Appointment: Robert D. North, assistant director of personnel, effective Feb. 1, 1950.

Little Commons Cafeteria: Appointment: Anne C. Elliott, assistant and director, transferred from the University Commons.

Other staff changes included graduate assistants and clerical workers.

Campus Film Is Available For Showing

The University's new campus motion picture entitled "The University of Kentucky: A Place, a Spirit," is now ready for distribution.

Filmed in color, the movie shows students in their living quarters, at work in classroom and laboratory, and as participants in a variety of recreational activities. Also shown are flashes from recent Kentucky football, basketball, and baseball contests.

Movies At Memorial Hall

The movie, "The University of Kentucky: A Place, a Spirit," recently released by the Extension Department, and a short of the Kentucky-Mississippi game, will be shown in Memorial Hall Thursday.

The show, sponsored by the Activities Committee of the Student Union Board, will begin at 4 and 7 p.m.

Richard Pigman was named vice president; Bob Smith was elected secretary, and Charles Matthews, treasurer.

Named to the advisory committee at the meeting were Don Sherlock and Harvey Selwyn. Serving on the membership committee are J. C. Howell, Nada Erffl-Faxh-de-Bromfi Powell and Earl Conn.

Bob Smith will also act as attendance supervisor in addition to acting as secretary.

Next meeting of the guild will be in room 204 of the SUB on Nov. 8.

Figures Announced For Ag Enrollment

Final enrollment figures for the College of Agriculture and Home Economics show that this semester's enrollment is the largest in the history of the college.

Of the 930 students enrolled, 701 are in agriculture, and 229 are studying in home economics. This is an increase of 30 students over last year's enrollment.

Vocal Clinic Starts Oct. 28

The UK extension and music departments are sponsoring the second annual state vocal clinic to be held on the campus Oct. 28-29. The meeting is to be held for the benefit of high school and college music teachers and students.

Inaugurated last year as Kentucky's only statewide vocal clinic, the program this year is to be highlighted by a fiction forum, repertoire session, choral ballet program, and a dinner for both students and teachers.

Many of the well known professional and educational personalities are included in the program.

Art Teachers Exhibit Work

An exhibit featuring the works of Kentucky art teachers is currently on display in the Music Room of the Student Union Building and will continue through noon on Saturday, Oct. 29.

The display which consists of paintings, prints, ceramics, and textiles, was organized by Dord Fitz, assistant professor of art, who is president of the art section of KEA.

Recent graduates displaying works are: Peggy Atkinson, who is now an art teacher in Jefferson County schools; Betty Brooker, art teacher at Atherton High School, Louisville; Philip Hodge, art teacher at Evans High School; and Cecil Thrasher, art supervisor of Henderson City Schools.

Teachers throughout the state and several faculty members are represented.

3 Nominated Prof Of Year

Three faculty members of the College of Arts and Sciences have been nominated from the number of final candidates for that College's "Distinguished Professor of the Year" award.

Candidates for the award are Dr. Herbert P. Riley, head of the department of botany; Dr. Irwin T. Sanders, head of the department of sociology, and Dr. Morris Scherago, head of the department of bacteriology.

Started in 1944, the award was inaugurated as a means of recognizing "outstanding accomplishment in a chosen field." The winner is granted a leave of absence to conduct or continue an original project and to prepare a speech to be delivered in the spring.

A final vote will be taken later this month and the winner will be announced Nov. 1, Prof. John Kuiper, head of the department of philosophy and chairman of the selection committee, has announced.

Previous recipients of the "Distinguished Professor of the Year" title are Grant C. Knight, professor of English, 1944-45; Dr. Amry Van denbosch, head of the department of political science, 1945-46; Dr. Thomas D. Clark, head of the department of history, 1946-47; Dr. William S. Webb, head of the departments of physics and anthropology, 1947-48, and Prof. Kuiper, 1948-49.

Frosh Given Scholarship

William C. Preston, engineering freshman, has been awarded the new four year mining engineering scholarship of the South-East Coal Company.

The scholarship is valued at $2400 and the recipient must be an employee or son of an employee of the company.

An academic standing satisfactory to the dean of the College of Engineering must be maintained throughout the four year course.

The show, sponsored by the Activities Committee of the Student Union Board, will begin at 4 and 7 p.m.

Richard Pigman was named vice president; Bob Smith was elected secretary, and Charles Matthews, treasurer.

Named to the advisory committee at the meeting were Don Sherlock and Harvey Selwyn. Serving on the membership committee are J. C. Howell, Nada Erffl-Faxh-de-Bromfi Powell and Earl Conn.

Bob Smith will also act as attendance supervisor in addition to acting as secretary.

Literary Guild Holds Election

Robert McGowan was elected president of the Patterson Literary Guild at its first meeting of the year Tuesday night.

Richard Pigman was named vice president; Bob Smith was elected secretary, and Charles Matthews, treasurer.

Named to the advisory committee at the meeting were Don Sherlock and Harvey Selwyn. Serving on the membership committee are J. C. Howell, Nada Erffl-Faxh-de-Bromfi Powell and Earl Conn.

Military Department Release Lists Army Opportunities

This is the first of a series of articles released by the military department, to point out the opportunities the Army offers to young men of the ROTC who can measure up to Regular Army standards for career officers.

Today our country is making great sacrifices in money and materials to provide a reasonable assurance of security against the possibility of aggression. However, it is generally agreed that unless adequate military leadership is included in these provisions, all sacrifices and expenditures will be futile.

Skilled military leadership is the indispensable ingredient of victory. It is essential that the quality of the individual selected for entry into the commissioned ranks of the Regular Army be of the highest type.

There is no element in the Army so important as leadership. It is the sum total of definite things, such as the leader's true interest in the welfare of those subordinate to him, being a model to those troops he leads, being an understanding counselor and instructor, being an efficient executive and also something of a psychologist, so that he can induce willing cooperation and cheerful obedience toward achievement of a common goal.

The importance of leadership has increased with every scientific and technical advance that has made life more complicated, but military leadership means more than mere command and rank. It embraces all trained personnel who are responsible for the implementation of the commander's decision, both in the actual crisis of battle and in the long process of mobilization, training, and preparation for action against an enemy.

The American people want an efficient Army that will serve the cause of national security and world peace. They want good men to handle that job. If you feel you measure up to Regular Army standards, there's a great future in leadership.

Leadership requirements in any field of endeavor are exacting, but nowhere else are the rewards of leadership more satisfying than in a brilliant military career.

Trustees OK Use of YMCA

Arrangements have been approved by University trustees for students enrolled in the University's Northern Extension Center to use facilities of the Covington YMCA four days a week during the school year.

A social room, grill, and study room at the YMCA will be placed at the disposal of full-time students from 7 p.m. Monday through Thursday each week. In addition, swimming, dancing and other forms of recreation will be provided at monthly parties for the UK students.

Girls interested in joining the organization should apply at the office of Dean L. J. Horchak of the College of Agriculture.

Leadership requirements in any field of endeavor are exacting, but nowhere else are the rewards of leadership more satisfying than in a brilliant military career.

Qualifications required are a 1.5 standing, one course in animal husbandry, and a sophomore or upper-classman classification.

Bob Bleidt's Band To Play At Dance

The annual Fall Carnival sponsored by Lances, junior men's leadership honorary, will be held from 7-10 p.m. tonight on the University Intramural Field.

A dance, also sponsored by Lances, will be held from 9-12 p.m. in the Bluegrass Room of the SUB, with music by Bob Bleidt and his Blue and White Orchestra. The admission is $1, stag or drag.

Thirty-one organizations will have booths in the carnival. Each booth will sponsor a candidate to compete for the title of queen of the carnival.

Winners To Be Announced

The winning booth will be chosen on the basis of the amount of money the booth makes, the originality of the booth, and the beauty of the sponsor. The winners will be announced at the dance following the carnival at 11:15.

Erection of the booths will begin at noon today and must be turned in to room 127, SUB, not later than 10:30 p.m. tonight.

Trophies To Be Awarded

Six trophies will be awarded this year—four of them will be presented to the winners and runners-up of the last two carnivals and two to tonight's winners.

The purpose of the carnival is to raise money for the Lances valued at $200 and $300 are awarded scholarship fund. Two scholarships annually to two members of the committee composed of three student body. Recipients are chosen faculty members and two members of Lances.

UK Announces Committees

Appointments of four University committees for the current school year have been announced by President H. L. Donovan. The committees are:

Committee on elections: Dr. Herbert Riley, head of the department of botany, chairman; Dr. L. H. Carter, professor of economics; Dr. Frank G. Dickey, acting dean of the College of Education; Dr. G. R. Gerhard, associate professor of metallurgical engineering; Dr. D. E. South, professor of mathematics, and Dr. L. H. Townsend, professor of agricultural entomology.

Planning and policy committee: Dr. Calsie Hammonds, head of the department of agricultural education, chairman; Dr. W. R. Allen, head of the department of zoology; Dr. H. H. Downing, head of the department of mathematics and astronomy; Dr. H. B. Morrison, professor of dairy; Dr. Morris Scherago, head of the department of bacteriology; and Dr. Maurice P. Seay, dean of the University.

Rules committee: Dr. Lee Sprowles, registrar, chairman; Dr. George K. Brady, professor of English; Dr. Leo M. Chamberlain, vice president of the University; Prof. John Kupper, head of the department of philosophy; S. A. Mory, professor of structural engineering, and Dr. M. M. White, dean of the College of Arts and Sciences.

Committee on student organizations: Dr. A. D. Kirwan, dean of men, chairman; Dr. James Haselden, assistant dean of women; Dr. Anna Card, professor of agricultural economics; Dr. Betty Ellestesen, assistant professor of romance languages; Prof. R. D. McIntyre, professor of marketing, and Dr. Irwin T. Sanders, head of the department of sociology.

Suky Sponsors Vote For New Cheerleaders

Regular cheerleaders elected for the current school year at an election sponsored by Suky are Jean Hardwick, Mary Lou Clark, Betty White, Bobby Dean Yates, Elinor Gash, Ruth Mayo, Bill McClure and Warren Fetherston.

Alternates are Jane Webb, Nancy Brown, Dick Walker and Dave Bere.

ODK Membership Applications Due

Application for membership in Omicron Delta Kappa, national men's leadership honorary, may be filed in the Dean of Men's office from today to Oct. 31.

Junior and senior men with a standing of 20 or better and an accumulation of eight activity points are eligible for election.

A student must have acquired points in two of the five fields included in the ODK point system. The five general fields are scholarship, forensics, athletics, publications, and social service.

"Dixie's Best"

The University's "Best Band In Dixie" is preserving its right to that name in excellent fashion this year. Only those who have played and marched in that band know the tremendous amount of hard work necessary to transform the first-day crowd which returns into a highly-trained and smart-looking marching band.

Most of the new members have played in high school bands, but they often must learn an entirely new set of signals and memorize as many as five numbers to be played on the field during one performance.

Only through intensive practice and with a great deal of co-operation from the members can the new formations and complex marching procedure be perfected. It is safe to say that during the football season the band devotes more time to a 2-hour course than does any other class on campus—often up to 12 hours a week, besides individual practice time for memorizing the schedule of selections and the actual time at the games.

The band and its leaders are to be congratulated for their accomplishments this year. The 1949 BBHD is definitely worthy of a place on the same field with UK's finest football team to date.

Letters To The Editor

The Vogue

Editor, The Kernel:

It has been my opinion for a long time that one of the reasons for a lack of spirit at athletic events here has been the tendency on the part of the students to overdress.

It has come to a point where the stands are nothing more than a fashion parade. Men dress up in their sharpest suits (anything short of a tux seems the vogue) and girls peek out occasionally from behind their enormous mums to spy on their neighbors to make sure no one has outdone them by wearing a formal under their best fur coat. (They know that only a formal dress could possibly outdo Fifth Avenue outfit draped upon their torso.)

Now really, sir, how could anyone be expected to really relax, enjoy themselves, and cheer the Big Blue on to victory dressed in such a manner? Of course, it is impossible.

That is why I am advocating that we break down this local custom and come to the games dressed in very informal attire. Sweaters and skirts (or blue jeans) should be good enough for the gals and just plain slacks and sweater with sport or dress shirt for the guys. Let's all try it just once and see what happens. I'll bet you school spirit at the games will rise unbelievably.

This is not a crackpot idea of my own, so please don't misunderstand me. I believe in dressing for occasion, but a sporting event has always been a thing to attend in casual wear.

Sincerely,
A FOOTBALL FAN

Howdy, hit's plum nacheral and weleum tuh shift 'round the kampis these days an' see the trees a sheadin' setch party reminders that fall is here and that the courtin' will soon haf' a move in doors for a spell.

Tawk about all I reckin' hits abowt the fav'rightist seeson around these parts. Yessir, hit seems tuh be git'in' everybody in he rite mood fur het' upsoin', bawltotin', backbustin', Wildeat feet-bawl team thar ole "Bear's" ben coaching tuh vitorie this year.

Peepul keep a spekalatin on how he done it—herd as how, afore the seeson opened, he shipped a hull passell of his prospeeks down tuther side of Owensburee where he had a lotta stamp ground plowed deep furrows, and that he set his boys tuh running acrost them furrows and a dodgin' them stumps till they aekshully put the jackrabbits to shame!

Spite of all the beatin' and bangin' the team tuh afore skool opened, they wuz still a lotta life left in them boys when the freshmen gals kum a siding through the kampis that first weak, cause they let out more woor yells then I've heard since the opening day at Joyland pool this summer. Speck they skeered the daylights out of a few of the gals tuh furst, but if I disrember my wimmen folks kerreckly hit warn't long afore this bunch kum tuh like it rite good.

Matter of fact all the unusual attention mitte hev hepped a few of them to git over a sliite kase of mammy hankuin'. I speck if I hadn'a been so busy gettin' in an outfit lines thar first weak, I might have done a mite of mountain style hollerin' myself.

Which reminds me, I seed in the papers where this Likkenhouse feller has gone plum hawg wild and placed our team second in the nation, and speckin' them to go fast!

The studeants hav reely ben supporin' this razzle dazzle buncha bawl playin' wizzards to. Why weak fore last when them Gordia Bull-daws kum around, with their years pricked up and left with their tails bewix their laigs, more students flockin' into the stadium then them Pinkerton fellers could begin to take keev ov. Acourse the wust fit of the life warnt on the greedion a tall, hit was just afore and after the game when everybody was a trying their allnightest to bust in and out. Lord lov me if I didn't wish I wu daid—an I nearly was!

Sum feller got his jug of corn squeezins stuck between my ribs and I thawt shore my day of reckning had kum. Wal, like the goose—that made the broad jump, I spect I better not stay in one spot too long Be seen of ye.

Campus good will should never end!

Wood's boys certainly were chipping Friday night at Joyland. Many were "down" but few were out. No one was dancing happier than Barbara Mandi. This makes two weekends straight that Squeaks Thomas has driven all the way from West Virginia to see her.

Liz Gunther wouldn't think of flushing J. D. Vaughn but his pin is a different subject. This gets our vote for tragedy of the week.

Bob Brumfield's theme song is "on, on, on Hades!" and proves it by carrying his large daily bottle to the grill.

Scoop of the semester—Helen Deeks and Buzzy Holder exchanged pins on a quick two-day romance. Both had showers at respective houses and Buz got so happy about it that he repinned Mary Alice Mayer with Diess' Tri Delta pin. We'd say that old Buz has just plain run wild!

NOW HEAR THIS • • •

By T. J. Clark

During the past week I occasionally amused my idle mind by sneaking up on people and asking them if they had even been in to look over the University of Kentucky Radio Service. Most of the time I got a snappy comeback, something clever like "no" or "Not yet." Then I'd point a lanky finger and say something unintelligible to the effect that WBKY was on the top floor of McVey Hall. When I'd offer this information no one would try to horizontalize my perpendicularity, but on the other hand no one handed me two-fifty and inquired about the time of departure of the next sight-seeing bus.

This brings up an interesting question. Why is it that some folks come to UK, fun a while, finally manage to get a degree and leave without ever seeing the studios? I suppose it's for the same reason that many congressmen never darken the doors of the Smithsonian Institute; the same reason that some people never get to the Radio City Music Hall even though they live on the Island. "You can go there any time."

Now there's something about the radio studios that brings interesting effects. For instance, every now and then a 50,000-watt, bigwig blows in from the north-east and cracks his upper plate on the tile in studio A, a direct result of focusing his myopic peepers on this and that. Okay, okay, so it's an exaggeration. But on the level, you'll get a surprise when you finally break down and visit WBKY, leading frequency modulation station in the country and the first F.M. station in Kentucky.

And speaking of top drawer radio

Southern Methodist Sparked Kittens Beat By Doak Walker, Kyle Rote At Nashville

By Ben Peeler
SMU Sports Editor

*Editor's note: This article was written for The Kernel at the start of the current season.

The 1949 SMU Mustangs boast 21 lettermen, including seven regulars, who return from last year's Southwestern Conference and Cotton Bowl champion.

Despite this apparently bright outlook, there is no over-confidence on the Dallas Hilltop for both coaches and players realize that this year's team could be as strong or stronger than last season's and still drop several games.

The Ponies this year face the toughest schedule ever laid out for a Southwest Conference team. Beginning with Wake Forest, and through Notre Dame, there is nothing that resembles a breather on the slate. In addition to Wake Forest and Notre Dame, the Ponies have intersectional tussles with Kentucky, whose coach admits will be one of the strongest ever from the Bluegrass State, and Missouri, whose annual battle with SMU is rapidly becoming one of the major intersectional clashes. All this in addition to the six bloodthirsty conference brothers in a league rated for its cutthroat competition.

About the only bright spot in the otherwise dreary schedule picture is the fact that eight of these ten rivals will be played in the Dallas Cotton Bowl. Only TCU and Texas A. & M. must be met on foreign soil. 1949 also marks the first time in SMU's history that no games will be played in the cuspine crackercorn, otherwise known as Owby Stadium.

Johnson Turned Pro

Coach Matty Bell's charges were dealt three reverses in mid-July. The first and most important occurred when ace passer, Gilbert Johnson, named "Southwesterner of the Year" last winter by the Texas Sports-Writers Association, decided to pass up his last year of eligibility in order to play pro ball. It was Johnson who almost single-handedly saved the Bellmenn against Arkansas, TCU and almost pulled the Missouri loss from the fire last year.

The second blow came in the form of an auto wreck in which Gene "Chicken" Roberts, hard-running safety, was hospitalized for over a month. Roberts, however, has passed a medical checkup and is expected to see some action this season.

Reserve Tackle Gord Headlee, a former all-state high schooler, was also lost when he married and withdrew from school.

Line is question
Coach Bell this year is again faced with a king-sized question mark along his forward wall. The Pony forwards were considered weak the past two years also, however, being shoved around on numerous occasions only to stiffen within sight of paydirt.

Despite the loss of Johnson, SMU's vaunted "All-American Backfield" will be as strong or better than last year. With Walker, Rote and McKissack returning, the secondary is three-fourths intact and Frank Payne, star of the '46 season, is ready to step into Paul Page's vacant shoes at wingback.

Along the "thin red line," the strongest spots will be at the terminals and at pivot. All four first and second-string ends are returning, plus five newcomers Probable starters at end may be Bob Folsom (190) and Raleigh Blakely (195). At center, veteran Fred Goodwin (200) will probably get the nod again but will get stiff competition from Sam Wood (185), who played almost the entire 1949 Cotton Bowl game, and Soph. Dick Hightower (195).

The tackle slots will be the weakest along the line. With All-Conference John Hambarger and Captain Joe Ettridge gone, only the starters, Bobby Collier (210) and Bob Vann (215), are experienced. This caused two blocking backs, Ken Blackburn (205) and Jim Marion (200) to be shifted to tackle during the spring session.

The guard spots will again be handled by four steady, if not sensational performers. Neal Franklin (195), Eric Lipke (198), Jack Halliday (215), and Walter Roberts (192) all took turns at starting last fall.

Walker Back Again
The backfield, as noted above, will again be SMU's strong point. The redoubtable Doak Walker (168) will again be back at quarterback. Walker will probably handle the bulk of the passing since the departure of Johnson, in addition to the punting, extra point duties, directing the offense and averaging about 52 minutes of action per game. Doak last year completed 32 of 57 passes and averaged 42.1 yards on 35 punts.

Dick McKissack (195) will be back for his fourth year at fullback. McKissack has been rated one of the most underrated players in the nation, being overshadowed by Walker and Rote's brilliance. He was mentioned for All-American in both '47 and '48.

The halfback posts will find Kyle Rote (195) and Frank Payne (165) in the starting posts. Both are triple-threaters and could take over as the team ramrod in the event something happens to Walker. Rote averaged 70 yards punting against Oregon in the Cotton Bowl and was named to the All-American Sophomore team last year. Payne led SMU in '46. He is a hard runner that doesn't know when he is stopped and is a better than average passer.

SMU will again operate offensively off variations of the single—and double-wing formations, along with a liberal sprinkling of the "Y," which allows either halfback to take over the chief ball-handling duties without lessening the effectiveness of the taiback as a threat. The Ponies might also run a few patterns off the "T" for the first time this year. Fred Benners proved last fall while on the "Ineligibles" that he was fine T-quarterback and better-than-average passer.

It climaxed a 72-yard drive featured by another pass—Farley to Bob Fry—good for 20 yards.

Bill Farley converted on two of his three attempts for the extra point, to give the Wildcats a 20-0 lead. The Kittens struck again before the half ended, when Bill Farley pitched his second touchdown pass of the afternoon. This time Halfback Harry Jones grabbed the pigskin for the score.

But Cron, who was in Vanderbilt's hair all afternoon, intercepted two passes to thwart other scoring threats, and Homer Meads hauled in another with about two minutes left in the game to completely erase any hopes the Commodores might have had.

For the Wildcats, it was Cron and Farley who carried the brunt of the offensive burden in the backfield. In the line, Donaldson, Weaver, Fry, Hodge, and Calvin Smith were the heavy-duty men.

Halfback posts will find Kyle Rote (195) and Frank Payne (165) in the starting posts. Both are triple-threaters and could take over as the team ramrod in the event something happens to Walker. Rote averaged 70 yards punting against Oregon in the Cotton Bowl and was named to the All-American Sophomore team last year. Payne led SMU in '46. He is a hard runner that doesn't know when he is stopped and is a better than average passer.

The guard spots will again be handled by four steady, if not sensational performers. Neal Franklin (195), Eric Lipke (198), Jack Halliday (215), and Walter Roberts (192) all took turns at starting last fall.

The tackle slots will be the weakest along the line. With All-Conference John Hambarger and Captain Joe Ettridge gone, only the starters, Bobby Collier (210) and Bob Vann (215), are experienced. This caused two blocking backs, Ken Blackburn (205) and Jim Marion (200) to be shifted to tackle during the spring session.

DisKintucky

Sports Review

By Tom Diskin, Sports Editor

In three and one-half seasons at Kentucky, Coach Paul Bryant's charges have never been beaten by a non-conference opponent.

Beginning with the 26-7 victory over Cincinnati on September 28, 1946, the Kentucky eleven has now sailed through 18 intersectional foes without having its ears pinned back. Only a 13-13 tie with Villanova spoils an otherwise perfect record.

However this record might possibly be stopped tomorrow in Dallas when the Wildcats will tangle with SMU's Mustangs, who have lost only twice in their last 27 contests.

From here it looks like it will be Kentucky's outstanding defense versus SMU's wide-open offense.

Coach Bryant is pessimistic as usual about the forthcoming tilt. Early this week he stated he "honestly believes SMU is the finest team we've played since I've come here. Their backfield is perhaps the best in college football in the last 10 years." He added that since Southern Methodist's pride has been hurt by the Rice defeat, they'll be all the tougher to handle tomorrow afternoon.

The Bear also mentioned that the biggest danger will be Doak Walker, who can pass and run with equal skill. "When you rush him, he'll run with the ball. If you don't rush, he can pass you dizzy."

Without a doubt this is one of the most important games ever played by a UK team. It will take a mighty strong outfit to beat Kentucky if they continue to play like they have in the previous games this fall. The Cats were sensational against Ole Miss and Georgia. We feel that they'll make a fine showing in Dallas tomorrow, too.

The Bryant family will probably hold a big reunion in Dallas this week-end. Coach Paul Bryant has two married sisters living there. He also has a brother and a sister in Houston; a brother in New Orleans; a sister in Texarkana; and two brothers in Arkansas along with his mother, Mrs. W. M. Bryant, or Fordyce, Ark.

Coach Bryant has in all four brothers and four sisters, most of whom will be at the Southern Methodist game tomorrow afternoon.

The Kentucky-SMU game will be covered by Paramount News, according to Ken Kuhn, UK publicity man. This game, which will be held in the Dallas Cotton Bowl, is expected to draw about 60,000 people—the largest ever for a Kentucky team.

have no excuse if Kentucky does well against the Mustangs. We believe that the big Cats will take the Red and Blue of Southern Methodist regardless of how much Walker plays tomorrow.

The above statements were expressed even before Doak Walker came down with influenza Wednesday morning.

We hope "the Doaker" recovers by Saturday, so SMU followers will

Cats' Great Defensive Play Features Win Over Citadel

By Earl Conn

In what was little more than a two-hour scrimmage session the University of Kentucky Wildcats snowed under The Citadel, 44-0, last Saturday night at Stoll Field, before a crowd of 25,000. It was the Cats fifth straight victory and their last test before the Wildcat-Mustang game this Saturday.

The biggest feature of the contest was the amazing defensive record of the Cats. The Citadel was able to gain only one yard in total defense during the entire evening's action.

At the end of the first half The Citadel had gained five yards on the ground and nothing in the air. During the second half they lost four more yards than they gained and once again did not gain yardage passing.

A second bright spot in the Kentucky picture was the six points after touchdown made in six attempts. Previously the Cats had only made 12 in 24 tries and this brought the p.a. average to .60 percent from the previous .50 percent.

Don Phelps scored two touchdowns for the Cats while Bill Leskovar, Clayton Webb, and Ed Hamilton also gained six-pointers on the ground. Shorty Jamerson scored once on a pass from Vito "Babe" Parilli and Benny Zaranka recovered a Citadel fumble in the end zone for a safety.

Bill Boller kicked two of the extra points while Bobby Brooks added three and Dopey Phelps booted one.

Player Of Week

Bill Leskovar

Player of Week

Kentucky and Army are perhaps the biggest surprises of the current football season. One of the key men in the Wildcats' success this fall has been 20-year-old Bill Leskovar, who has been named The Kernel's Player-of-the-Week.

Last Saturday night, against The Citadel, the 190-pound fullback from Fairmont, W. Va., ran with the ball 10 times and picked up 70 yards for an even 7.0 average.

For this season, Leskovar is running a close race with Dopey Phelps, for the team's leading ground-gainer. Big Bill, in five games, has now advanced the oval 252 yards in 50 attempts for an average of slightly over 5.0. He has also scored three touchdowns for the Big Blue.

Georgia's football coach, Wally Butts, said after Kentucky had beaten his team, 25-0, that the Wildcats "are loaded with good backs." That Leskovar was one of the most sought after high school players in the country, "I know because we tried to land him."

For a time it looked like Leskovar would be kept down on the canvas by Ol' Man Injury. It was just one thing after another for his first two years at Kentucky.

He enrolled at UK in June, 1947. In summer practice, Bill received a back injury that slowed him down.

But now his luck has changed and the bushy-haired lad seemed headed for stardom. Claude Sullivan, sportscaster for Lexington's WKLY, is one of Bill's many boosters. Sullivan believes that this fullback will become one of UK's game in his final cage season.

Leskovar captained both the basketball and football teams in his senior year, when West Fairmont won the West Virginia State gold-medal championship.

As a junior, he won the State's batting crown with a rousing .432 average as his high school baseball team went to the finals before losing out.

Between 60,000 and 70,000 are expected to witness the Kentucky-Southern Methodist battle tomorrow afternoon in Dallas' Cotton Bowl Stadium shown above. The huge structure has a capacity of 75,347. Odds-makers have installed Kentucky as a 7 to 10-point favorite to whip the powerful Mustangs of Dallas.

Cats Favored To Take SMU Saturday At Dallas

By Kent Hollingsworth

Out in Texas, where things are REALLY BIG, the Southwest's biggest team plays the week's biggest game tomorrow when Southern Methodist meets the University of Kentucky at 2 o'clock (CST) in Dallas' huge Cotton Bowl.

Despite Rice's upset victory last week, Harry Wismer, head sports announcer of ABC, will broadcast the game over a national hookup—the first time any Kentucky football contest has been deemed important enough nationally.

Because of Rice's victory, L.S.U.'s win over Rice, and Kentucky's 19-0 game with L.S.U., the Wildcats are given a slight edge in the odds by the bookmakers and a tremendous edge by SMU mentor Matty Bell.

According to Moaning Matty, the Mustangs might just as well call off practice; all Kentucky need do is toss a helmet on the field and the twice Southwest champs will give up.

Bell further laments his good friend Bear Bryant — Navy coach during the war—gathering together an unbeatable team, one he says, he couldn't hope to beat even if his Mustangs weren't broken both in body and spirit. All of which is as meaningless as a politico's platform speech.

boy in the saddle, 72,000 State Fair visitors would see a nip-and-tuck affair all the way.

From a state which perennially develops great things, this Dallas boy Doak Walker is the greatest. Unanimously selected on the All America team the last two years, he could make it this year without even picking up football. He's been awarded more trophies and plaques than he has store room for.

He passes, kicks, catches passes, runs the ball from scrimmage. If there is anything else man can do with a football, he'll do that too.

Throughout his college career, he has connected on 57.4 percent of all his passes, far better than Johnny Rauch or Charlie Connerly's records; last season he hit 32 receivers in 56 tries for 383 yards. On 62 punts he has a good 38.8 yard average. He has snagged 26 passes for 449 yards, intercepted 10 for 164 yards. In all he has scored 220 points, averaged 5.08 yards on 552 plays from scrimmage. He has been the Key man in two great campaigns that wound up with a tie and victory in the Cotton Bowl.

The only way to account for Kentucky's 10-point pregame edge, would be in the absence of Walker in the Fony lineup, and reports varying from flu to broken ribs, are being eagerly read by hopeful Wildcat fans. However with the Golden Course, there are other Mustangs beside Walker. Kyle Rote bulldozed his 200 pounds over with the deciding touchdown in last year's Bowl game. Then there is the great fullback, Dick McKissack. Frank Payne operating from the single wing and spread formation will pass while Walker is busy doing something else.

Intramural Sports

By Earl Conn

Men's Dorm, Delta Tau Delta, and Sigma Alpha Epsilon held four and nothing records in their respective leagues to pace action in the Intramural Football Leagues in games played through Tuesday.

Men's Dorm led League One and is followed by PDT and PKA, each team winning two games while dropping one.

In League Two, Delta Tau Delta leads, but LXA and the Turtles are right on their heels, each team dropping only one contest to date while winning three.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon holds a wider edge in League Three. Closest teams are the Newman Club and Kappa Sigs, both teams winning three while dropping two.

Schedule for today calls for three games. In League Three the Wish Independents will meet ZBT at 4 p.m. at the University High field with ATO scheduled to play the Newman Club in the second game.

Also scheduled in League Three is the SN versus SAE game at 5 p.m. at the Intramural Field behind Alumni Gym. The Turtles will play DTD in a League Two game in the first game slated for 4 p.m. behind the gym.

Scores of the games in all three football leagues through play this Tuesday are as follows:

LEAGUE ONE: Oct. 18, SPE 1-DX 0; Oct. 17, Men's Dorm 21-DX 0 Oct. 14, ASP 1-SPE 0; Oct. 13, KA 6-DX 0; Men's Dorm 1-PDT 0; Oct. 12, PDT 13-SPE 0.

LEAGUE TWO: Oct. 17, LXA 14-PSK 0; Turtles 12-AGR 0; DTD 15-PKT 6-Triangles 0; Oct. 13, LXA 1-Triangles 0; Oct. 14, DTD 5-LXA 0; AGR 0; PSK 7-PKT 0.

LEAGUE THREE: Oct. 18, KS 6-SN 0; Newman Club 7-Wish Ind. 6; SAE 25-ZBT 0; Oct. 12, ATO 1-Wish Ind. 0; KS 19-ZBT 6; SAE 1-Newman Club 0.

Golf, Tennis

Play is also progressing in the golf and tennis activities. Intramural tennis—the singles division is in the fourth round while play in the doubles is now in the third round.

Intramural golf is in the third round this week while golf doubles is in the second round.

Today is the final day for all scheduled matches in each of the rounds.
